

Alex is Artistic Director (Music) at the King's High School in Warwick, a role which oversees music provision for children aged 3-18 and where he conducts the Warwick Independent Schools Foundation Symphony Orchestra. He is a conductor, violinist, educator and writer. He is founder and Artistic Director of the Darwin Ensemble Chamber Orchestra, with whom he regularly appears as soloist. He is a conductor and violin tutor for the National Children's Orchestra of Great Britain (NCO), conductor of the NCO Easterlies and is also a conductor and course director for the National Youth String Orchestra of Great Britain. Alex is a former Head of Strings at Uppingham School and a former professor at the Royal College of Music in the Junior Department. Alex's students have won scholarships to leading conservatoires, are prize winners in the UK and abroad and are members of the NCO and of the National Youth Orchestra of Great Britain. Alex contributes articles on violin teaching to ARCO and JESTA, magazines for the European String Teachers Association, and his reviews of music and education regularly appear in the Strad magazine.